Pay & display car park

A pay and display parking facility is available within a fenced area inside the main University car park on Stag Hill. The car park can be used by staff, students or visitors to the University.

The pay and display ticket machines are operational between 7.30am and 5pm and parking outside of these times is free of charge. Cars may also be left in the pay and display car park overnight, although this is entirely at the owner's risk.

For current rates and payment methods:

Parking with a permit

Between 7.30am and 5pm, Monday to Friday, parking in all car parks other than the pay-and-display area are for permit holders only.

Your host Faculty or Department may issue you with a visitor parking permit. If you are unsure whether this is the case, please contact your host in advance of your visit.

For details of the eligibility criteria for student parking permits, please see our website.
